This month's challenges:

Why don't you write to your favourite author? Hopefully you will get a reply!

Why don't you practise your handwriting at home in order to impress your teacher?

Can you read at least one book a week this month?

Why don't you write your own comic or story at home?

Why don't you conduct some research about the topic you're learning about at the moment in school?

Donations

Would you like to donate a book to your child's class or the school library? As many of our fundraising events have been cancelled this year, we would value your support. You can even include a message to the children via Amazon which we will stick inside your donated book.

Thank you in advance
