How to Save the World by Emma Shevah

Set in Southwold, Suffolk

This story isn't just about birds. It's about secrets, the seaside, how seagulls can trick worms into thinking it's raining. It's about mucus, fudge and dogs needing a wide variety of sniffs. If you want the simple version, it's about what happened in Suffolk last summer. How a girl called Ivy and a boy called Nathaniel solved a mystery and saved the world's animals: one at a time ...

The Garden of Lost Secrets by A M Howell

Inspired by Ickworth House, Suffolk

October, 1916. Clara is sent to stay with her formidable aunt and uncle in the grounds of a country estate. Clara soon discovers that her new surroundings hold secrets: a locked room and a hidden key, and a mysterious boy who only appears in the gardens at night... But can Clara face up to her own secrets, and a war she's desperate to forget?

Reading with your child at home

Top Tips

- Regular reading times.
- Variety of reading ranging from pictures books, chapter books, magazines, comics, web research and audio books.
 - Lead by example—let them see you reading!
- Reading talk— talk to them about what they enjoy reading. This can help with future book choices.
 - Create a reading challenge at home— a way to motivate.
 - Set aside time without distractions turning off TV and computers.
 - Make it fun—it doesn't matter how you read as long as you enjoy the time together.
- Sign up for a library card and fill your home with books for free!
