Dear Parents,

Unity Owl

We are delighted to welcome the Unity Owl into school next week in support of fostering fortnight programme. Suffolk foster carer recruitment team are running a roadshow to promote the need for foster carers in the locality. Unity Owl who will be spending some time at our school was designed by one of our former students. We are extremely proud of her.

Swimming Team Success

A huge well done to the swimming team who represented the school in a local swimming gala.

We are delighted with their hard work and determination, they were a credit to the school and to top it all off they came first. We are extremely proud of you all.

Year 3 Reading Club

We are looking forward to welcoming students and their parents into the school library on Tuesday's after school. They will be taking part in a reading club which has been organised by Miss Kay and Mr Moore. We hope they enjoy the different activities planned.

Y5 Portal To the Past Stone Age Workshop

The children in Y5 will be arriving at school on Thursday 18th May dressed in stone age costumes ready for their workshop. We hope they enjoy the different experienced planned.

Coronation Picnic Lunch—Friday 5th May

A reminder that the children can come to school dressed in red, white and blue on Friday 5th May as part of the coronation celebrations in school.

The school value we are celebrating this half term is aring.

Wood Ley Teams

Online Safety Team

The online safety team were delighted with the responses received from the on line safety poster competition. We are proud to announce the winning logo shown here, this was created by Hermione. A huge well done to her for this colourful creation.

Reading Buddies

Reading Buddies

We are delighted that the team of reading buddies in year 5 have expanded to include 7 new students. They are now able to support the children in foundation as well as Key Stage 1.

Thank you to: Brooke, Isabelle, Joseph, Bradley, Jessica, Brodie, Alice, Juliet, Jessica, Ava, Lily, Lily, Sofia, Lacey and Kason, for giving up your lunchtimes to support the younger children with their reading.

Peer Supporters

The peer supporters are working hard on their duty days to encourage the children to play well and provide a helping hand if anyone is upset or has a problem. The children are easily recognisable with their purple hats and clip boards.

Play Leaders

The play leaders continue to support the children in keeping active during lunchtimes. They are pleased to announce some new playtime equipment arriving soon to encourage the children to get involved in the games they plan and to have fun at breaktimes.
